

Puzzle #728

By Father Don Antweiler

ACROSS

1. This puzzle presents some of Mo.'s most notorious outlaws who ____ before, during and after the Civil War (CW) and are buried in our State.
7. The little Osage Co. town that is the home base of Diamond dog food.
10. Letters for a Physical Ed. class in high school.
11. To bring a law suit.
12. An extra wide shoe size.
14. Sullivan or Asner.
15. Direction the Magi came from.
16. Wm. "Bloody Bill" Anderson, the most notorious and deadliest guerrilla, became a dangerous bushwhacker joining Quantrill after a Unionist judge killed his father. When his two sisters were ____ and then maimed & killed when the jail collapsed, he swore revenge. Took a leading role in the Lawrence, KS massacre & the Baxter Springs massacre (103 Union soldiers killed) & led the Centralia, Mo. massacre (22 unarmed Union soldiers & then 125 pursuing, all killed). Bodies were scalped & mutilated. Seen as a psychopathic killer in a time of desperation & lawlessness. Killed in 1864, buried in Pioneer Cem., Richmond, Mo.
18. A brand of cola.
19. Electric shaver brand.
20. Prefix for dynamic or nautical.
23. Cow chow.
25. The most famous outlaw is Jesse James who joined the Confederate bands of Quantrill & Bill Anderson during the CW. Allegedly shot at while trying to surrender, he embarked upon 10+ years of bank and train robberies and murders until murdered by one of his own gang for reward ____ in St. Joseph, Mo. Interred in Mt. Olivet Cem. in Kearney, Mo.
27. The ____ is in the pudding, as the old saying goes.
30. Cream ____ Wheat has been a breakfast staple since 1893.
32. "The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out at dawn to ____ laborers for his vineyard," (Matthew 20:1).
33. To regret.
34. "The memory of the just will be blessed, but the name of the wicked will ____," (Proverbs 10:7).
36. "If you are willing to ____ the pot, you better be willing to eat what comes out of it," —Wes Fesler.
39. Mt. Rushmore president (abbr.).
40. "The ____ back to sanity is to acknowledge your insanity," —Steven Magee.
42. ____ Wed. is the beginning of Lent.
43. One translation of the word Amen is "it is ____."
44. He pounded in a ____ for the tent rope.
45. "God rest ____ merry gentlemen..."
46. In chess, a castle is called a ____.
48. Letters denoting great urgency.
50. Original, for ex.
51. Here, in Paris.

53. Letters for physical therapy.
54. Moses used this to split the sea in two (Exodus 14:16).
57. Many police forces have trained ____ (special weapons and tactics) teams for special assault or suppression situations.
58. Francis of ____.
59. Another lesser-known outlaw is Sam Hildebrand who allegedly killed over 100 men during the CW in retaliation for Union soldiers killing a brother and Union soldiers targeting his _____. He was in the Big River area of St. Francois County in eastern Mo. Killed in 1872, buried in Hampton Cem., Park Hills, Mo.

DOWN

1. The second most famous outlaw in Mo. history is Frank James, Jesse's older soldier brother & whom Jesse followed into Quantrill's band. After Jesse was killed, Frank turned himself in to the Governor in Jeff. City.
2. Prosecutors could never get a conviction. He became a shoe salesman, telegraph ____, a tour guide at the James farm. He died a respectable citizen in 1915. Buried in Park Hill Cem. in Independence, Mo.
2. The first words Jesus spoke to His apostles after His Resurrection was "____ be with you," (John 20:19).
3. Q-U.
4. Periodic table letters for gold.
5. Wm. Quantrill was a gambler turned school _____. In 1860, in reaction to violent anti-slavery activity in Kansas, he sided with Confederates at the battles of Wilson's Creek and Lexington, Mo. He most infamously led 450 guerrillas to sack and burn the abolitionist town of Lawrence, KS killing 160-190 men & boys. Shot to death in 1863, he is buried at the Old Confederate Veteran's Home cemetery in Higginsville, Mo.
6. The Kentucky ____, in-

- augurated in 1875, has been dubbed by some as “The most exciting two minutes in sports.”
7. ____ Verde Nat. Park in New Mexico is famous for its 600 cliff dwellings of ancestral Pueblo people.
 8. Lesser known outlaw Clell Miller, who as a ____ joined dif. guerilla bands, was captured while riding with Bill Anderson’s group. After a year in jail, he joined the James-Younger gang & was killed in the failed Northfield MN raid in 1876. He is buried in the Muddy Fork Cem. in Kearney, Mo.
 9. “Then ____ pasta to the boiling water...” said the recipe.
 13. Suffix for auction.
 17. He was encouraged when the tests showed his ____ was operable.
 21. In real estate, abbr. for room.
 22. ____-la-la!
 24. It was a close vote but the ____ have it!
 26. Let’s get down to the ____-gritty of the matter.
 27. Cole Younger, & his brothers, were leaders in the James-Younger gang. Though Cole’s father was pro-Union, his father was shot dead by “red leg” units of Kansas federal soldiers who had a reputation for ruthlessness. Seeking revenge, he rode with Quantrill on the Lawrence, KS raid. Later, as part of Archie Clement’s gang, engaged in bank, stage coach & train robberies. Fleeing the failed Northfield MN bank raid, Cole & brothers were wounded, captured & sentenced to life in _____. Bob died there. Jim committed suicide. Cole was paroled, wrote a memoir, lectured and toured, became a Christian & repented of his past crimes. Died in 1916 & buried in his hometown cemetery in Lee’s Summit, Mo.
 28. There are three ____ allowed in an MLB inning.
 29. Archie Clement, trusted lieutenant of Bloody Bill Anderson, was known for his ____ in scalping and mutilating Union corpses. Never surrendering, he became leader of a band of bank robbers, leading the first peacetime daylight bank robbery in US history in Liberty, Mo. Jesse James was part of this gang. Shot to death in a Union ambush in 1866. Buried in the Arnold Cem. near Napoleon, Mo.
 31. The deciduous ____ of Mo. consist predominantly of oak trees.
 35. Roman wear.
 37. A special tax on imports or exports.
 38. The Greek letters Chi (X) and ____ (P) are the first two letters of the word Christ in Greek (CH and R in English); when superimposed over each other, they are one of the earliest liturgical symbols for Christ.
 41. A popular degree at Mo. S&T in Rolla.
 44. “Someone’s been eating my porridge,” growled the ____ bear,” —from “Goldilocks & the Three Bears.”
 47. A small green fruit with a light brown skin, also called a Chinese gooseberry.
 49. Letters on the side of a tire.
 50. Letters for the City by the Bay.
 52. Calvin Coolidge, our 30th President, was a man of few words and was known as “Silent ____.”
 55. ____ Elliot; born in St. Louis, considered one of the 20th century’s major poets.
 56. Letters for artificial intelligence.
 57. International country code for San Marino, one of the world’s oldest republics.